

The Owensboro Fire Department

Presents.....

Chief John Salka

@ Brescia University . 717 Frederica Street . Owensboro, Kentucky 42301

Wednesday May 21

0830: "First In Last Out – Leadership Lessons from the FDNY"

Chief Salka discusses some of the many challenging situations he has been in during his 28 years with the FDNY. Not only fireground leadership but how to handle the troops back in the firehouse. This is a great program for company and chief officers.

1330: "Fireground Responsibility" We are all trying to reduce firefighter injuries and deaths, so we must take an honest look at these operations and find out what we are doing wrong to learn how we can increase the safety and survival of our firefighters.

Thursday May 22

0830: "First In Last Out – Leadership Lessons from the FDNY"

1330: The Engine Co. Officer and Chief Officers Professional Development Program When you move up from company officer to chief there are lots of things you need to do differently. Topics such as initial fireground operations, ICS, safety & accountability, strategy & tactics.

1800: "Fireground Responsibility"
